

October 12, 2016

Nili: Unidentified gunmen beat the owner of the local Nasim Radio in the central province of Dikundi and launched grenade attack on the station in capital Nili last night.

The incident happened mid-night, Wednesday October 11, the station owner Mohammad Reza Wahedi, told Afghanistan Journalists Center.

“Two masked gunmen entered our house in Nili city and regularly beat me in the head with the butt of the pistol and then went toward the besides building which is the radio station located and threw grenade inside the campus.” he said

In Dikundi, masked gunmen beat journalist and launched grenade attack on radio station

Last Updated Wednesday, 12 October 2016 16:48

